CENTRAL FLORIDA JAZZ SOCIETY RULES FOR DISTRIBUTION OF SCHOLARSHIP PRIZE MONEY

1. Prize money may be used for two purposes: school tuition or the purchase of musical equipment/repairs that are needed for educational purposes.
2. Awards WILL NOT be given directly to the student. Checks will be mailed to a school, individual or store where instruments, repairs or accessories have been purchased. Online purchases are acceptable with proper receipts. Those students who do not plan to re-enroll in school within one (1) year, or purchase musical instruments or accessories with the award must submit their plans of projected uses to the Central Florida Jazz Society for approval in order to comply with IRS requirements. All expenditures must be evidenced by receipts satisfactory to the Society.
3. School Tuition: The student is responsible for informing the CFJS Scholarship Chairman and CFJS Treasurer of the name, phone number and address of the official person who is responsible for handling scholarship funds in the finance department at the college. The student's ID number or Social Security number is needed to complete the transaction. A check will then be mailed to the college to be applied toward tuition payment. It is possible that a private music teacher can receive the payment, pending proper authentication.
4. Equipment Purchase: The student must supply CFJS with the name of the store or individual with whom they are dealing. The individual or store will be contacted by CFJS. An invoice with complete description of the equipment to be purchased must be provided to CFJS. A check up to the amount of the scholarship award will be mailed to the store or individual to cover the purchase.
